Maria Acevedo has been appointed Co-Chair of the Cross Border Real Estate Committee

Maria Acevedo has been appointed Co-Chair of the Cross Border Real Estate Committee of the International Law Section of the American Bar Association effective through August 2023. This committee is a clearinghouse for practitioners overseeing transactions in their respective jurisdictions and abroad. The committee aims to push real estate law forward, including with respect to inbound and outbound real estate investment; financing, mortgages, and security issues; harmonization of title registration and transfer requirements; title insurance issues; and other matters of substantive international real estate law. The committee also updates its members on international real estate trends.

Maria Acevedo has been recognized in 2023 Best Lawyers in America for Mergers & Acquisitions.
