ACEVEDO BELT, P.A.

305.396.4282
305.396.4771

Family Office & High Net Worth

Acevedo Belt, P.A. represents family offices and high net worth individuals in a wide variety of matters transactions. With each matter we strive to provide our clients with highly personal and responsive service together with the benefit of Maria's and Brian's combined decades of large firm experience.

Corporate and Business

- Represented family in acquisition of interests in high-end Miami restaurant group
- Representation of family office in connection with various investment activities
- Corporate restructuring for Miami-based family
- Representation of family office in connection with various investment activities.
- Represented family interest in connection with establishment of investment in U.S.-based real estate fund
- Representation of family office in a wide variety of corporate, business and transactional matters
- Represented family office in connection with participation in and loans made to aviation training company

Commercial Real Estate and Luxury Residential Real Estate

- Represented purchaser of $25 million penthouse condominium
- Represented purchaser of $15 million residential lot
- Representation of individual in connection with construction of $17 million single family residence
- Represented a variety of families in connection with residential sales and purchases in excess of $1 million
- Represented owner in connection with acquisition and leasing of large parcel of land adjacent to Las Vegas strip.
- Miami principal of South Florida investor and principal of national development company in connection with establishment of residential development company, and related acquisitions and due diligence activities, construction contracts, organization, employment agreements

International

- Represented family in connection with mobile virtual wallet startup and other mobile payment solutions provider on issues pertaining to Latin American market
- Represented family-owned distributor of airtime for prepaid cellular phones in establishment of U.S. operations and the formation of strategic alliances to target U.S. Hispanic market
- Represented Argentine family entertainment venture in sale of broadcasting units to major U.S. media company

- Represented family of consortium of port / terminal owners in establishing and developing various industries in Haiti
- Represented Colombian-owned printing company in interactive printing joint venture with Miami-based company
- Represented U.S. family in connection with development and structuring of Costa Rican-branded residential resort and various negotiations with Hilton
- Represented individual owner and investor in financing and construction of multiple restaurants

Four Seasons Office Tower
1441 Brickell Avenue, Suite 1400
Miami, Florida 33131

© 2026 Acevedo Belt, P.A.